

YOU'RE INVITED

Saturday • February 20 • 6:00 pm CST

an acoustic evening with

MARK DVORAK

& special guest

Marianne Mohrhusen

a ZOOM live stream event

Midwest treasure Mark Dvorak brings music into our contemporary world with authenticity, humor & a great warm voice. Singer, songwriter, musician, teacher - he does it all brilliantly!

"At this stage of the game," said the singer, "I feel like I am doing my best work."

During the pandemic Dvorak has been busy with recording and writing. His latest CD, Alive & Alone is due out in March and was recorded live in an empty concert space for 98.7 fm WFMT's live "Folk Stage" series with Rich Warren.

Dvorak has also completed work on a new collection of essays, "31 Winters," which reflects on his journey through teaching and music.

He will be joined by Marianne Mohrhusen for the concert. "Marianne is a wonderful singer with great taste & clarity," said Dvorak. "We only get together a few times a year to harmonize, so this will be a very special evening."

The Chicago Tribune has called him "masterful," and the Fox Valley Folk Festival describes him as "a living archive of song and style." Dvorak has won awards for journalism and children's music, and was honored in 2013 with the FARM Lantern Bearer Award from Folk Alliance International. In 2008 he received the Woodstock Folk Festival Lifetime Achievement Award and in 2012 The Midnight Special radio program named him "Chicago's official troubadour."
